

Therefore, it is not the individual that is neutral, but his work when it becomes representative of the universal; and when the subjected represented follows the synthetic timespace iconography of a totality that uses forms of past and future fossilizations on shapeless matter, on limited surfaces or on circumscribed forms, which reveal signs of known or mysterious intelligences.